

Nanaimo RCMP to begin ground search for woman

Nanaimo RCMP will begin conducting land searches Tuesday as they continue to investigate the disappearance of a 21-year-old woman missing for more than two months.

Several unidentified areas near Nanaimo will be searched as police continue to look for evidence of the whereabouts of Lisa Marie Young.

Constable Jack Eubank has said police suspect foul play is the disappearance of Young, who was last seen early June 30.

She had been out at a Nanaimo night club, and was later seen riding in a late 1980s burgundy Jaguar.

Young is native, about five feet 10 inches and 120 pounds. She has brown hair and brown eyes.
