

Family hopes posters will help find Lisa Marie Young

Daily News

Friends and family members are putting up new posters to keep the name and image of a missing woman in the public eye.

Joanne Young, mother of 21-year-old Lisa Marie Young who went missing at the end of June, says it's vital that people realize that the woman is still missing.

"We're going to various parts of town on Sunday to put up new posters with new photos. We want to keep this alive in people's memories," says Young.

Anyone wishing to help put up posters in the city is asked to call Young at 758-2037 or Faye Ormsby at 753-5962.
