

◆ CRIME

Family will hold vigil for missing Nanaimo woman

The family of a young Nanaimo woman missing for seven years will hold a candlelight vigil in her memory for the first time on the West Coast this weekend.

Even though Lisa Marie Young was born and raised in Nanaimo, her mother, Joanne Young, said the family is holding their annual vigil for her on Long Beach this year because much of her extended family lives there.

This is the first year in a few Joanne Young said she's felt emotionally strong enough to have a vigil.

"We just want to keep the awareness out there that she is still missing," Joanne Young said. "We've always believed that someone knows something."

In the early hours of June 30, 2002, then 21-year-old Lisa Marie Young was in downtown Nanaimo, out celebrating a friend's birthday, when she got into a maroon Jaguar and was never seen again.

The vigil will take place on Long Beach on Sunday at 1 p.m.

Family will hold vigil for missing Nanaimo woman

Nanaimo Daily News - Friday June 26, 2009

The family of a young Nanaimo woman missing for seven years will hold a candlelight vigil in her memory for the first time on the West Coast this weekend.

Even though Lisa Marie Young was born and raised in Nanaimo, her mother, Joanne Young, said the family is holding their annual vigil for her on Long Beach this year because much of her extended family lives there.

This is the first year in a few Joanne Young said she's felt emotionally strong enough to have a vigil.

"We just want to keep the awareness out there that she is still missing," Joanne Young said. "We've always believed that someone knows something."

In the early hours of June 30, 2002, then 21-year-old Lisa Marie Young was in downtown Nanaimo, out celebrating a friend's birthday, when she got into a maroon Jaguar and was never seen again.

The vigil will take place on Long Beach on Sunday at 1 p.m.

<https://lisamarieyoung.ca/ndn20090626>

<https://www.newspapers.com/clip/101197929>

<https://web.archive.org/web/20240110115203/https://www.newspapers.com/clip/101197929>

© Copyrighted material including media excerpts are reproduced/reproducible, with attribution to the author, under Copyright Act of Canada s.29.2: "Fair dealing for the purpose of news reporting".